

Getting Started

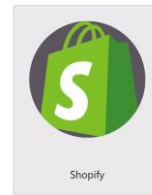

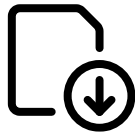

Getting started with product import and stock management

Go to Resources / Downloads in
'My Account' on the website

Download FREE CSV file

or

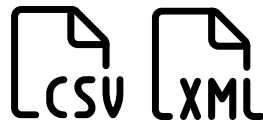

Purchase premium files

Map the columns

Import into website

Find the stock file either xml or csv and right click, then copy link.
You will need this during set up.

Set up stock management on your website

Stock file is updated every hour